

Andreas E. Kyprianou
University of Bath

Title: Scale functions and ruin

Abstract: The objective of the talk will be to give a comprehensive introduction to recent developments in the theory of scale functions and what they mean for the classical theory of ruin. We make particular reference to the Gerber-Shiu function and other functionals of the path of the surplus process which have been of continuing interest thanks to the many contributions of Prof. Gerber.